COURT DECISIONS.

Notes of Cases Recently Decided, Which are of Interest to Our People.

DIGESTED BY W. B. MARTIN, (Exclusively for Virginian-Pilot.) P. C. C. & ST. L. R. CO. V. BD. PUB. WORKS, WEST. VA.

Supreme Court of the United States. November 28, 1898.

THE COLLECTION OF TAXES AS-SESSED UNDER AUTHORITY OF A STATE WILL NOT BE ENJOIN-ED BY A FEDERAL COURT, UN-LESS THE TAX IS ILLEGAL AND ALSO THE OWNER OF THE PROP ERTY HAS NO ADEQUATE REM-EDY AT LAW, AND THERE ARE S P E C I A L CIRCUMSTANCES BRUNGING THE CASE UNDER SOME RECOGNIZED HEAD OF

EQUITY JURISDICTION.

PROVISION FOR REVIEW AND CORRECTION BY A COURT OF THE ASSESSMENT IS ADEQUATE AND WILL PREVENT SUCH AN INJUNCTION.

PREVIOUS NOTICE TO OWNER IS NOT NECESSARY, IF THERE IS NOTICE, AND RIGHT TO APPEAL TO A COURT TO BE HEARD, AND OFFER EVIDENCE, BEFORE THE ASSESSMENT IS FINALLY FIXED.

This was a suit by appellant railroad company to enjoin the appellees from the assessment and collection of taxes upon its bridge over the Ohlo river, made under the laws of West Virginia. The lower court dissolved the injunction which had been issued, and dismissed the bill, and the railroad company appealed. The facts necessary to an understanding of the case appear in the opinion of the court. The court says:

the opinion of the court. The court says:

The collection of taxes assessed under the authority of a State is not to be restrained by writ of injunction from a court of the United States, unless it clearly appears, not only that the tax is illegal, but that the owner of the property taxed has no adequate remedy by the ordinary processes of the law, and that there are special circumstances bringing the case under some recognized head of equity jurisdiction. [After quoting a number of its decisions, holding that the mere illegality of a tax did not authorize an injunction, and discussing the provisions of the West Virginia laws authorizing the assessment of taxes by the Board of Public Works, the court continues.]: This provision for a review and correction by the Circuit Court of the county, of the assessment made by the Board of Public Works, affords a convenient and adequate remedy for any error in the taxation, and has been held by the highest court of the State to be in accordance with its constitution. * In matters of taxation, it is sufficient that the pary assessed should have an opportunity to be heard, either before a judicial tribunal, or before a board of assessment, at some stage of the proceeding. Even if, therefore, no previous notice of the hearing before the Board of Public Works was required by the statutes, or was, in fact, given to this plaintiff (which is by no means clear), yet the notice of its decision, with the right to appeal therefrom to the Circuit Court of the county, and there to be heard and to offer evidence, before the behard and to offer evidence, before the heard and to offer evidence, before the heard and to offer evidence, before the heard and to offer evidence, before the statutes of the State for the review of the assessment complained of, is not entitled to maintain this bill. Decree affirmed.

[There is a somewhat similar law as to contempt in Virginia.]

The facts sufficiently appear from the opinion of the Court. The Court says:

The sole question presented for determination in this case is whether or not the husband, being a party to an action for divorce and alimony, can be imprisoned for a greater period than ten days for the Purpose of enforcing a compliance with an order of the trial court, requiring him to pay a certain specified sum as alimony, after said party upon a proper hearing has been adjudged in contempt for a refusal to obey such order. It is shown by the applicant, and not denied by respondent, that the former had been imprisoned for a period of eleven full days before filing his petition herein. St. 1893, Sec. 4545, provides that "* In an action for divorce and alimony the Court may make and enforce by attachment such order to restrain the disposition of the property. For or the use thereof the payment of alimony and suit money in the classes of cases designated in said section 4545, for a fine of $50 and imprisonment for ten days will in many cases be ineffective to competa compliance with such orders, and if these orders cannot be enforced by attachment and imprisonment as for contempt of court, they cannot be enforced by attachment and imprisonment is for ten days will in many cases be ineffective to competa compliance with such orders, and if these orders cannot be enforced by attachment and imprisonment is for contempt of court, they cannot be enforced by attachment and imprisonment for the days will in many cases be ineffective to competa compliance with such orders, and if these orders cannot be enforced by attachment and imprisonment for the days will in many cases be ineffective to competa compliance with such orders, and if these orders cannot be enforced by attachment and imprisonment for the days will in many cases be ineffective to competa compliance with such orders, and if these orders cannot be enforced by attachment and imprisonment for the days will in many cases be ineffective to competa compliance with such orders and the The facts sufficiently appear from he opinion of the Court. The Court jurisdiction of the subject matter to enforce an order, either for temporary or permanent alimony, by attachment and imprisonment, even though such power is not conferred by express statutory enactment. But has it been taken away from the courts of this territory, or so limited as to be ineffectual. We think not, but, on the contrary, believe that there is a clear distinction to be drawn between what is therein intended as a "punishment for contempt," and the power of the court, expressly conferred by statute, to enforce a lawful order by attachment and imprisonment. For a contempt in disobeying such an order the punishment is of two separate and distinct kinds—one to enforce obedience to the order; the other, to vindicate the honor and dignity of the court and to compel respect for its authority. It will be observed that it is the punishment for the contempt proper that is limited by the provisions of the statute under consideration, and not the power of the court to enforce any legal and proper order. For the reasons stated, I think the pelition and appliedation for writ of habeas corpus in this case should be denied, and that petitioner should be remanded.

DOGS AND PONIES.

Prof. Gentry and his company of educated dogs and ponies, some one hundred in number, will exhibit in this city, under canvas, Chapel and Orient streets, April 19th, 20th, 21st and 22d, afternoon and evening.

Prof. Gentry's exhibition is too well known in this city to need much praising. The simple announcement that his talented dogs and ponies are soon to exhibit here is sufficient to enthuse the little ones, who in turn make the fact known to the older ones, and as usual Prof. Gentry will enjoy the same liberal patronage. His fine exhibition thoroughly deserves all the praise that is bestowed upon it, for it would be impossible to devise a more pleasing and instructive exhibition than the one given by Prof. Gentry and his wonderful dogs and ponies. The prices of admission are, children, 15 cents, and adults, 25 cents.

The Epworth League of Trinity M. E. Church will meet for devotional exercises in the lecture-room at 7 o'clock to-morrow night, and will adjourn from there to the auditorium, to assist in the revival services.

Mr. Morgan, who was so badly injured last Saturday night on Broad Creek road, was thought to be improving yesterday, although he is not yet out of danger.

The B. Y. P. U. of Spurgeon Memorial Baptist Church is arranging for a series of Monday night entertainments at the church that promises much pleasure to the young people of the church.

ATLANTIC CITY WARD.

The revival at Central Avenue Baptist Church continues to attract large congregations, and there is no abatement in the interest.

The citizens residing in the eastern section of Ghent are delighted at the prospect of having a free foot bridge across Smith's Creek to Mowbray Arch, as it will shorten considerably the distance from there to the central part of the city.

The Junior Epworth League of Le-Kles' Memorial Church will hold its regular meeting Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The program of exercises will be varied and interesting.

The Junior Society of Christian Endeaver of Colley Memorial Presbyterian Church will meet Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. A program of much interest to the young has been prepared.

The Episcopal congregation organized in the ward several weeks ago is rapidly augmenting in numbers. Services are now being held every Sunday night in the W. C. T. U. hall, on Colley avenue. As soon as a suitable site can be secured they propose to effect a next and costly chapet.

Several of the avenues have been improved by the free use of shells on the roadbeds.

BALL SEASON OPENS.

SCORES IN NORFOLK AND .AT

A game of ball was played yesterday between the Stars and the Swamp poodles, which resulted in a victory for the Stars by a score of 17 to 5. The features of the game were the home run by Lewis, of the Swamppoodles, the batting of at PTatem, making six hits out of six times at the bat, and pitch-ing of N. Tatem, striking out eleven men. Score by innings:

LOUISVILLE, 1; CHICAGO, 15.
Louisville, Ky., April 14.—The Colonels were virtually slaughtered by the Orphans in the opening game of the National League season here to-day. The all-around playing of the Chicagos and Ryan's phenomenal one-hand catch against the left field fence were the features. Attendance, 9.000, Score:

PHILADELPHIA, 6; WASHINGTON,6
Philadelphia, Pa., April 14—The ball season opened here with over ten thousand people in attendance, and proved to be an auspicious occasion for the home team. Philadelphia won, but it was not an easy victory, as Washington played a fine fielding game, and had the home team not solved Killen's delivery in the fifth, sixth and seventh innings, a different story might be told. Attendance, 10,768. Score:

A SILVER WEDDING.

MR. AND MRS. JAME L. WIL-LIAMS ENTERTAIN FRIENDS. Mr. and Mrs. James Langley Williams

celebrated their silver wedding last evening at their home, 191 Granby evening at their home, 191 Granby street. Over two hundred invitations were sent out and about half of that number were present last night at the celebration, filling the two parlors and hall of the home. Presents were received from all parts of Virginia, from Baltimore, Atlanta and Philadelphia. They were very numerous and handsome, there being all kinds of silver articles among them.

The parlors of Mr. and Mrs. Williams' home were beautifully decorated in pink and green colors and brilliantly lighted. The silver wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. C. Q. Wright, chaplain at the naval post, assisted by Rev. Wm. F. Smith, of the Disciples' Church, and Rev. Mr. Edwards, of Centenary Methodist Church.

A sumptuous wedding supper was served the large number of guests in the dining-room, which was prettily decorated in pink. Music was a charm-

Four members of the Suffolk Whist Club came to Norfolk yesterday afternoon, and last night, at the residence of Judge Edward Spalding, 223 Park avenue, played duplicate whist with some of the best players in Norfolk, and carried off the honors.

It was suggested that Norfolk players "threw the games" as a matter of courtesy to the visitors, but the Judge states that the visitors won on their merit. The next game will be in Suffolk, and Norfolk will then make the pace.

In the games last night 24 hands were played two ways, both tables using the same boards. The score was as fol-
